

40th DOK.fest München 2025 – Granting of rights for press purposes and screenings

In order to be able to promote the film WIDOW CHAMPION at 40th DOK.fest München 2025 (7-25 May 2025) intensively and purposefully, we ask you for the following rights concessions:

Please also confirm that

- you are the sole owner of the screening rights of the film and the trailer and grant these rights to DOK.fest München.
- you are the sole owner of the rights for making public, duplicating and distributing the press material.
- you are the sole owner of the right to make the press material available to the public and to reproduce and distribute it.
- the screening of your film during 40th DOK.fest München 2025 does not infringe the personal or other rights of third parties.

Please confirm by e-mail that DOK.fest München may

- publish the provided promotion material (photos, text, trailer, clips and film excerpts) for PR purposes on the website and on the social media channels during the festival and up to two weeks after the festival has taken place.
- use film extracts of up to three minutes in length within the coverage of the festival – on the website and on the social media channels of DOK.fest München.
- pass on photos and trailers to selected partners for promotion purposes.
- hand over an online link of the film to interested journalists before the festival for individual viewing purposes.
- clips (3x 90 seconds), which the rights owner should make available two weeks prior to the festival, or – in case these are not delivered on time – three freely selected film clips of this length, can be forwarded to radio stations, TV programs and online media and be used by them at no cost for the editorial coverage of 40th DOK.fest München 2025.

Thank you very much and best regards

Daniel Sponsel, Director of DOK.fest München
